GROUND GLASS IS FOUND IN JAM

Sometime during the day of March 7 C. J. Kentra of Tonopah purchased at a local store two cans of jam, one of these being Teagarden loganberry jam. These cans were taken home for purposes of consumption. One of these cans was opened, perhaps on March 8, and a portion of the loganberry jam placed on some bread.

Having partaken of and while masticating the same—bread and jam—Mr. Kentra discovered that there was a foreign hard substance in the jam, expectorated same and started an investigation into the contents of the can. Developments assuring him that ground glass was a portion of the jam content, Mr. Kentra practically separated the hard, glassy substance from the other content by washing and straining the same. He then, on the evening of the 9th of March, presented to the office of the chief of police the content recovered by his operation. A microscopic examination by Dr. Church determined the hard substance to be none other than ground glass.

It was found further that the above merchandise was ordered by the local firm from which it was purchased about May 29, 1917, through F. E. Clark, traveling salesman for the Pacific Coast Syrup company, with offices at 731 Sansome street, San Francisco, Cal.

The consignment containing the particular jam in question was billed December 31, 1917, San Francisco to Tonopah via the Salt Lake route. The case or box containing this can was of "48 tin" capacity of 14 ounces each. Said can (empty) has a stencil inscription on bottom end thus, "L. J. 7," and is now in possession of the Tonopah police department, as is also a water glass containing many fragments of the ground glass.

POISONED GAUZE SENT TO THE N. S. D.

The National Surgical Dressings committee desires to make the following information public, that it may serve as a warning to every one in these troubled times, to exercise every caution within their power.

On a bolt of surgical gauze opened recently in their work room there appeared more or less indistinct stains of yellow and greenish tinge. These continued at intervals throughout the bolt, but were more apparent near the outside of the bolt than on the inside. A sample of the gauze was sent to the public service department of the University of Nevada and a reply was received yesterday by the chairman, Mrs. Mayberry, in which it is stated that the stains are a very poisonous form of copper and that all of the bolt, whether stained or not, must be destroyed, as copper poisons do not sterilize and are almost certain death when brought in contact with an open wound. The N. S. D. is further instructed to notify at once the firm or warehouse from which the contaminated bolt was received.

The letter says that it is possible that the poisons may have gotten on through careless handling in the factory, but it is equally possible that it may have been placed on the gauze with malicious intent. In view of these facts it behooves every one, whether handling surgical dressings, food or any other commodity, to watch most carefully and to have an analysis made of anything that appears the least particle out of the ordinary.

MANHATTAN TO HAVE NEW SEWER SYSTEM

COMMISSIONERS VISIT CAMP AND MAKE INSPECTION OF SITUATION.

R. B. Davis, James Lindsay and W. J. Douglass, commissioners of Nye county, visited Manhattan Saturday for the purpose of inspecting the condition of Main street, which is being cut up by storm water, melting snow and water from the mines. The board considered several propositions, one being to dig deep gutters and either cobble stone or concrete, but it was deemed better to lay vitrified eight-inch pipe, so that it could be connected with from residences and business houses and thus give Manhattan a sewer system. L. L. Mushett, the machinery man, made the commissioners an extremely low bid for this work.

PRIZES TO BE GIVEN FOR SHORT SKETCHES

TONOPAH MAN MAKES ANNUAL OFFER TO PUPILS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The Carson City headquarters of the Nevada Federation of Women's Clubs has announced that the contest is again open this year to high school students of the state for original short stories. The prizes aggregate $50, the first prize being $25, the second $15 and the others of less amount. Principals of high schools over the state are asked to co-operate with the chairman, Mrs. George F. West of Yerington, in arousing interest among their pupils in the contest.

The Carson City High school carried off the first prize last year with a clever Indian myth, entitled "Squaw Face," written by Edward Quill. Helen Wogan of Reno High school captured the second prize, her story being entitled "Records from the Mouth of one, Selected from the Diary of a College Freshman." Grace Mills of Fallon High school won the third prize with a story entitled "The Difficulties of Sheep Herding." Other stories were given honorable mention.

The judges this year will be Edward Vanderlieht of Reno, George Anderson of Las Vegas and Mrs. H. C. Hanson of Mason. All stories must be in the hands of the chairman, Mrs. West, by May 1, 1918.

These prizes have been offered annually for several years past by Hugh H. Brown of Tonopah. The purpose of the donor is to encourage the accurate and effective use of the English language in the high schools of the state. The contest is known as the "Robert McCutcheon Brown Memorial Contest" and is designed as a Memorial day offering to the memory of the donor's father, the prizes being awarded on Memorial day of each year.

(By Associated Press.) BRIGHTON, Colo., March 11.—A jury in the district court found Frank H. Mulligan, former Denver detective, guilty of robbing Mrs. Irene Nolan, Denver society woman, of jewelry valued at $3,400 in a hold-up at the Model roadhouse. The trial was the first of four cases growing out of the affair. The jury was out fifteen hours. Mulligan was remanded to jail.

JAMES HERON WILL AGAIN STAND TRIAL

The jury in the case of the State of Nevada vs. James Heron, which was tried at Manhattan Saturday afternoon before Justice Lawrence, disagreed. The state was represented by District Attorney Atkinson and the defendant by Attorney Leo Harrington. The charge was making seditious utterances.

There was no doubt in the minds of the jurymen that Heron had made a number of remarks derogatory to the government and to some of its institutions, particularly the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A., insinuating, rather than directly charging, that there was graft in high places.

Yet, despite personal knowledge of these matters, the jury felt that it could not under its oath bring in a verdict of guilty, as the charge was based upon an utterance relative only to the sinking of the Tuscanis, and this was made in the hearing of only one person, and he proved to be an unwilling witness, qualifying his statement as to the seditious remark with the further statement that Heron planned to enlist in the army, or would do so if it were not for his age.

There is strong feeling in Manhattan over the matter, although the seven jurymen who voted for acquittal are not criticized, as the showing made by the prosecution was of the state of mind and intent of the defendant, rather than his commission of any overt act in the presence of two or more witnesses. An interesting feature of the case was the introduction of testimony by twelve character witnesses, each of whom declared that Heron was a good citizen, one of them responding to the oath to tell the truth by declaring: "Yes, by your diaphanous J—s."

The result of the trial has been the forming of an organization of forty of the best citizens of Manhattan, who may try several cases in the near future.

RULING MADE IN CASE M'GREGOR VS. JAMES

In the Fifth judicial district court Judge Averill has made a ruling on demurrer to complaint in the case of Mabel G. McGregor et al vs. Clark James.

This is a suit by the plaintiffs, husband and wife, for partition of property in Manhattan evidently held and managed by the defendant for the past ten years, and for an accounting of the rents and profits of the said property for the whole of the period.

The demurrer was overruled and fifteen days allowed to answer.

RAILROADS FAIL TO MAKE RECOVERY

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 11.—An attempt by the railroads to recover $40,000,000 from the government under the old system of space compensation for transportation of the mails was defeated in the court of claims today, which reaffirmed the former decision in favor of the government.

The court also held for the government in suits of New England railroads, which claimed extra pay for transportation of parcel post on the ground that their mail contracts did not require them to do so.

AMUSEMENTS

PAULINE FREDERICK AT THE BUTLER.

Pauline Frederick, who enjoys the distinction of being one of the very foremost of all screen stars now before the public, will appear at the Butler this evening in the Paramount picture, "Double-Crossed." The theme deals with a young society matron much in love with her husband, who overhears a so-called detective trying to blackmail him. Shamelessly playing eavesdropper, Eleanor learns that in his early life her husband, whom she had been inclined to place upon a sort of pedestal as an example of perfection, had committed a rather serious crime. The "detective" is attempting to get him to commit still another by threatening to expose the first. Touched by her husband's terrible fear lest she herself should learn of his early crime, Eleanor resolves to prevent his becoming a thief again by obtaining the paper the "detective" wants for him herself. From this point the photoplay sweeps through a series of thrilling and unexpected situations until a climax wherein Miss Frederick reaches her highest standards of acting, brings the story to an end, and Eleanor and her husband reunited and happy. The latest release of Hearst-Pathe News—now a feature in itself—will also be shown, including the government official war pictures.

Tomorrow, Tom Mix, the daredevil cowboy, in "Cupid's Round-Up," a thrilling story of the Golden West, also the government picture produced by the Military Training Camps association, entitled "Who Leads the National Army." Authorized by the war department. Designed to show the people the right training given in the officers' training camps. Every American citizen will want to see this picture—every theatre is requested to exhibit it. It will be shown here tomorrow—Tuesday.
